

CUYUNA RANGE POWER COMPANY ABSORBED

ALL HOLDINGS ARE ACQUIRED BY MINN. POWER & LIGHT CO.

Transfer Includes Power and Transmission Lines to Brainerd and 13 Other Towns and to the Various Cuyuna Iron Range Mines

Two Water Power Sites at Pillager and the Crow Wing River near Brainerd; the Two Coal Booster Plants at Ironton and Akeley

One of the biggest transfers in electric power circles occurred when the Cuyuna Range Power company of central Minnesota made formal transfer of all its holdings to the Minnesota Power & Light company, of Duluth, the huge power corporation now acquiring all water power holdings throughout central and northern Minnesota.

The transfer includes the Cuyuna Range Power company's power and transmission lines leading to Brainerd, Crosby, Ironton and other Cuyuna iron range towns and mines; Nevis, Managha, Pillager, Motley, etc., making a total of fourteen towns; the two water power sites at Pillager and Crow Wing river near Brainerd; the two steam booster plants at Ironton and Akeley.

Possession was taken on an option given two months ago by T. H. Crosswell, of Brainerd, president of the Cuyuna Range Power company. The extent of the latter company's holdings may be realized when the abstracts on property in one county, Cass, numbered over forty.

It is expected that one of the officials for the purchasing company will be in Brainerd to take over the management of the property on Monday.

The Minnesota Light and Power company came into possession of the Little Falls and Pike Rapids electric property shortly after the first of the year, from which points it will serve the territory west as far as Wadena. It already has extensive holdings on the Mesaba range, furnishing electric current to Duluth, Superior and as far south as Hinckley.

In acquiring the holdings of the Cuyuna Range Power company, Brainerd and the Cuyuna range will be added to the above list, and it is expected that even better service will be possible for this territory than has been given in the past, since the Little Falls power can be turned into the local lines should a breakdown occur here. Similarly, a like assistance can be rendered to Little Falls and its territory should occasion demand.

The Cuyuna Range Power company has furnished electric current to Brainerd and the range for something over ten years past, giving very satisfactory service during that time.

Nothing can be learned of the policies which the new organization will adopt until such time as their officials arrive and give out a statement, but it is said that the service rendered in other localities in which the company operates, is very satisfactory.

Exhibited in a box, they were viewed by hundreds of curious people. When they were placed on the ground in a park, according to the information to Mehegan, they died in short order.

Stack contended the Pioneer had "double-crossed" him and asked the court to award him $50,000 damages. Senator Walsh declared Stack's suit was unjustified and that he had really no "just" rights to the leases.

5 COMPANIES OF NATIONAL GUARD CALLED TO TOWN

KU KLUX KLAN AND ANTI-KLAN SENTIMENT FLARED IN TWO MOB FIGHTS

RESULTS IN SLAYING OF HERRIN POLICEMAN, KLAN LEADER, DEPUTY SHERIFF

(By United Press)

Herrin, Ill., Feb. 9.—Five companies of national guards, numbering 200 men, were converged upon Herrin today to help suppress a threat of another bloody massacre in Williamson county.

Ku Klux Klan and anti-Klan sentiment flared in two mob fights here just before midnight, resulting in the slaying of a Herrin policeman and klan leader and a deputy sheriff of the anti-Klan faction.

Caesar Cagle, klansman and policeman, was shot to death on the streets here shortly after Deputy Sheriff John Layman, bitter enemy of the Ku Klux Klan in wholesale liquor raids was shot and fatally wounded in a meeting of the liquor raid victims.

Three Herrin policemen who were appointed by the Klan forces, were said to have shot Layman. The three policemen were held today for safety from mob violence in the jail at Murphysboro, seat of an adjoining county.

The trouble started in a meeting of several score victims of the liquor raiders gathered in a Herrin hall to formulate plans of retaliation against activities of the klansmen lead by Glenn Young, unofficial "prohibition czar" of the county who was employed by the klan as a raid leader.

Young and his leaders under federal warrants have arrested nearly 1,000 alleged liquor law violators.

The meeting also was said to have been against the Knights of the Flaming Circle, anti-klan organization formed here last year.

SPRINGFIELD ADDS FOUR MORE TROOPS

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—Further outbreaks in Herrin early today caused Adjutant General Black to turn out the four local companies of the national guard.

Four companies were mobilized at the state arsenal and were ready to leave at 9 a. m. for Herrin by taxi.

TROOPS WITH LOADED RIFLES

Herrin, Feb. 9.—The Carbondale troop of the Illinois national guard took control of Williamson county with loaded rifles patrolling the Herrin hospital which was fired upon here today by a body of 100 alleged Ku Klux Klansmen.

Several men for whom the alleged klansmen said they had warrants for the killing of Caesar Cagle on the street last night, took refuge in the hospital and fired a volley at the approaching band. The fire was returned.

The attackers then retired from the hospital in which John Layman, deputy sheriff and leader of the anti-Klan element lies with a bullet wound received in a gun battle shortly after Cagle was shot.

Martial law for Herrin is imminent and probably will be declared as soon as two or three more troops now under way here arrive.

The trouble and troop movement were precipitated at protest meetings here of persons opposed to the wholesale raids made under the leadership of Glenn Young, federal prohibition agent.

Cagle was waylaid by a crowd of men hiding at the roadside, hit on the head, then shot twice and killed. When word of the death reached

MINERS, OPERATORS TO MEET IN SOUTH

(By United Press)
Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 9.—The question of another strike in the bituminous coal fields of the nation was expected to be decided at a series of conferences opening here Monday.

Representatives of coal miners and operators of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois are scheduled to hold the annual meeting here, in an attempt to reach a wage agreement for the year.

The shadow of a strike began to appear when representatives of the miners charged that operators intended holding out for a reduction in wages of workmen and announced they would oppose any cut in the present scale.

Decision of the operators and miners of the central competitive field for years has governed the action of miners in practically all the bituminous fields of the nation.

Marion, Young swore out warrants charging Sheriff Galligan, Deputy Layman, Ora Thomas, Hugh Willis "and others" with being in the crowd which slew the klan leader.

A band of klansmen under Young started for Herrin in automobiles and were fired upon by persons from the roadside. Leonard Sterns, son of Sam Sterns, Klan cyclops, in one of the cars, was slightly wounded in the back.

Layman was shot in the meeting of Italians at "Rome" hall, according to available information. This was shortly after Cagle's death.

Immediately following Layman's shooting, Galligan took three Herrin policemen, including Chief John Ford, who were in Herrin, to Murphysboro, because he feared mob violence, it was said.

Later the band of men came to the hospital where the sheriff's followers had come to see Layman. Both hands were armed and firing started. About 100 shots were exchanged. Several persons were shot. A number were seriously hurt. Windows and doors of the hospital were riddled.

MURDERED GIRL WAS PRODIGY IN HER HOME TOWN

MOTHER FROM TEXAS TOWN IS HURRYING TO NEW YORK TO UNRAVEL TRAGEDY

LOUISE LAWSON FOUND DEAD IN LUXURIOUS APARTMENT OF WEST SIDE

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 9.—Back home in the Texas town where her daddy kept the grocery store Louise Lawson was a child prodigy. Not a child for miles around in the lone star state could play the piano as Louise could at 12.

Her folks sent her to New York from Walnut Springs to complete a musical education—a little slip of a Texas girl with a winsome cultured manner that made her influential friends.

Today a grief stricken mother was hurrying north and physicians were performing an autopsy upon the brain of the girl who was 24 when she met violent death Friday night, to determine whether she was strangled or smothered in her luxurious west side apartment known as the monastery.

And it was not in musical circles that police and detectives searched for the murderer and motive, but in the haunts of bootleggers and "fences" and the murky byways of the city's underworld where jewel thieves hide.

Wealthy friends and sponsors of the Texas girl, including Gerhard M. Dahl, chairman of the executive committee of a big transit company, were being questioned.

The actress' hands had been "spread eagled" and tied to the bed posts with a dog leash. Her Belgian police dog was found lashed to a chair in another room of her apartment.

The police said the murder must have occurred after 8:30 a. m. yesterday, as the tenant of an adjoining apartment said she had heard Miss Larson's bell ring several times at that hour. To the girl's query, the caller replied he was an express man. The door was opened, the tenant said, and the caller apparently entered. Nothing more was heard.

GIRL'S BODY CLAD IN BLUE SILK NIGHTGOWN

New York, Feb. 9.—Miss Lawson's body, clad in a blue silk nightgown, was found sprawling in the abandon of death across the lace coverlet of an expensive mahogany bed in her apartment.

Silken hose and torn slips of filmy underwear bound her hands and feet while across her mouth, apparently the cause of death, a Turkish towel had been fastened with strips of surgeon's plaster.

Two men who came to Miss Lawson's apartment a few hours before her dead body was discovered, told the elevator boy they were bootleggers.

Three jewelry boxes of mahogany that matched the furniture in the apartment had been ransacked. Platinum watches, diamonds and other jewelry were missing. The movie lure had drawn the little Texan; for a while it developed, and when she last visited Walnut Springs, admiring friends of her childhood days were given to understand she had become successful as a film actress. This explained the smart clothing and brilliant gems she wore.

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 9.—Back home in the Texas town where her daddy kept the grocery store Louise Lawson was a child prodigy. Not a child for miles around in the lone star state could play the piano as Louise could at 12.

Her folks sent her to New York from Walnut Springs to complete a musical education—a little slip of a Texas girl with a winsome cultured manner that made her influential friends.

Today a grief stricken mother was hurrying north and physicians were performing an autopsy upon the brain of the girl who was 24 when she met violent death Friday night, to determine whether she was strangled or smothered in her luxurious west side apartment known as the monastery.

And it was not in musical circles that police and detectives searched for the murderer and motive, but in the haunts of bootleggers and "fences" and the murky byways of the city's underworld where jewel thieves hide.

Wealthy friends and sponsors of the Texas girl, including Gerhard M. Dahl, chairman of the executive committee of a big transit company, were being questioned.

The actress' hands had been "spread eagled" and tied to the bed posts with a dog leash. Her Belgian police dog was found lashed to a chair in another room of her apartment.

The police said the murder must have occurred after 8:30 a. m. yesterday, as the tenant of an adjoining apartment said she had heard Miss Larson's bell ring several times at that hour. To the girl's query, the caller replied he was an express man. The door was opened, the tenant said, and the caller apparently entered. Nothing more was heard.

GIRL'S BODY CLAD IN BLUE SILK NIGHTGOWN

New York, Feb. 9.—Miss Lawson's body, clad in a blue silk nightgown, was found sprawling in the abandon of death across the lace coverlet of an expensive mahogany bed in her apartment.

Silken hose and torn slips of filmy underwear bound her hands and feet while across her mouth, apparently the cause of death, a Turkish towel had been fastened with strips of surgeon's plaster.

Two men who came to Miss Lawson's apartment a few hours before her dead body was discovered, told the elevator boy they were bootleggers.

Three jewelry boxes of mahogany that matched the furniture in the apartment had been ransacked. Platinum watches, diamonds and other jewelry were missing. The movie lure had drawn the little Texan; for a while it developed, and when she last visited Walnut Springs, admiring friends of her childhood days were given to understand she had become successful as a film actress. This explained the smart clothing and brilliant gems she wore.

Cologne, Feb. 9.—Harry F. Sinclair today sold oil to Hugo Stinnes; money master of Germany.

The American promoter, lessee of the Teapot Dome naval reserve, closed agreements to deliver oil to the German industrialist begun when the latter's son visited Sinclair in America.

N. W. Delegation Sees Coolidge on Loans

Washington, Feb. 9—Legislation to permit the war finance corporation to make loans on real estate and on sound but nonliquid securities was discussed with President Coolidge today by Representatives L. "SPITZBUB" NO THIEF, IN OPINION OF JURY

Minneapolis, Feb. 9—"Spitzbub" means a sharp dealer, and not a thief, a Hennepin county district court jury decided in returning a verdict for the defendant, Otto Modrow, in a $10,000 slander suit brought before Judge E. A. Montgomery by Mrs. Kate Hoelscher, 2418 Emerson avenue N.

Mrs. Hoelscher said Modrow, formerly her brother-in-law, used the German word with the meaning "thief." John G. Priebe, attorney for Modrow, contended the word means merely a sharp dealer.

Odd Rents in England.

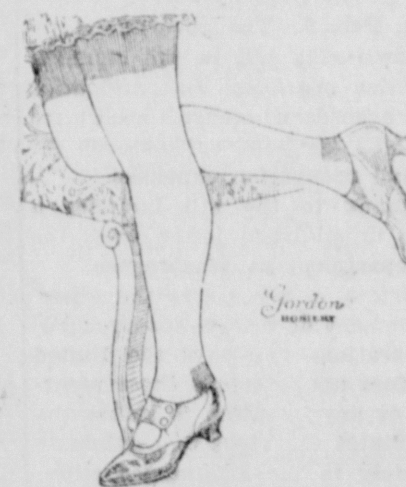

Many properties in England are still held on what seem to be the oddest of rents. The rent of one estate in Sussex, for instance, takes the form of a pound of black pepper each year, while another another estate in Leicestershire is paid for by a garland and three roses.

The Only One
The recently appointed county agricultural agent was visiting the farm of Uncle Rastus Jackson, in Georgia.
"Rastus," he observed, "this cow is in a shockingly unsanitary condition. I suggest that you thoroughly sterilize the udder before each milking."
"Yassah, yassah," replied the old darky, scratching his head in perplexity, "but I ain't got no odder—dis yeah am de only cow I'se got, sah."—Country Gentleman.

How Meat Is Made.
The United States Department of Agriculture finds it takes about 6 pounds of grain and 6 pounds of hay to produce 1 pound of lamb (live weight); 10 pounds of hay and 10 pounds of corn to make 1 pound of beef, and 5.6 pounds of corn to produce 1 pound of pork.

"Good Morrow To You, My Valentine!"

MANY curious old charms are said to be potent on St. Valentine's eve—all, like most charms ever invented, connected with the procuring of husbands. Even before surplus woman dawned on the scene, this seems to have been a subject of much anxiety. Five bay leaves, pinned respectively to the four corners and the center of the pillow, are said to bring certain dreams of the future partner, if the sleeper has gone to bed without eating or speaking.

Another infallible spell was to write the names of admirers on separate pieces of paper, enclose them in clay balls and throw them into water. The one which came to the surface first contained the name of the fated spouse.

It is a sign of great good luck if the swain you favor should be the first man seen on February 14. The modern girl who does not pin her faith entirely to signs and omens, can always practice the ruse of a shrewd maiden of long ago, who, knowing where her heart had gone, "lay a-bed and shut my eyes all the morning till 'he' came, for I would not have seen another man before him for all the world."

She was far-seeing and lucky. But if she had set eyes first on the wrong man, she would have wedded him, so a poet tells us:—
"Last Valentine, the day when birds of kind
Their paramours with mutual chirpings
And, as I went, amid the morning dew,
To milk my kine (for so should housewives do),
Three first I spied, and the first swain
We see,
In spite of fortune, shall our true love be."

Some of us wish that a quaint old custom practiced in the time of Pepys was still prevalent—the rule that a man must give a present to the first woman he saw on February 14. Pepys, gay old rascal that he was, much bewailed himself that his own tribute had to be offered to his wife—a proceeding he considered very dull, when there were plenty of pretty young girls at the light-hearted court of Charles II.

Old people still remember the time when valentines were as popular as Christmas cards, and the postman groaned under his load on the morning of the 14th. This is still the case in the United States, but the idea of courtship is no longer much connected with these bright cards.
Nowadays Shakespeare's greeting:—
"Good morrow, 'tis St. Valentine's day,
All the morning betime,
And I a maid at your window,
To be your valentine," simply reminds us of the passing of a delightful old custom.
Christianity brought the custom of placing each feast day under the patronage of a saint, and so St. Valentine, who never married himself, became the patron saint of lovers.—The Lady's Companion.

More to Follow
A young Scotswoman had just lost her husband. It was a sort of affliction and the minister called to condole with her. He found her in the kitchen eating a bowl of porridge.
"Ah, Janet," said the good man, "ye have met a sore affliction, indeed. It is too bad, too bad!"
"Aye, that it is, sir," was the reply, "and I grieved (wept) over it all the night. I just stopped long enough to eat my breakfast and as soon as I've finished this bowl of porridge I'm going to begin again."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Willing to Settle
A school teacher said to a small boy:
"Joe, this arithmetic problem of yours about the huckster and the apples is all wrong. You'll have to stay after school and work it out."
"How far wrong is it?" Joe asked.
"It's a dollar wrong," said the teacher.
Little Joe, a profiteer's son, drew forth a roll of bills and peeled a dollar off.
"I'll just pay up instead of working the thing out," he said. "You see, I'm awful busy this afternoon. Pop and me are going off for the week-end on our new flying boat."

Tunnel in Dispute
New Zealand has aroused controversy by declaring that its new Otira tunnel, which pierces the Southern Alps of New Zealand for a distance of five and one-third miles, is the longest in the British empire.
Londoners retort that their Piccadilly tube runs for about eight miles, from Baron's court to Finsbury park.
They also point out, further, that the Central London railway stays underground for seven miles, between Liverpool street station and Wood lane, and that the Bakerloo and Hampstead tubes have continuous tunnels for more than six miles.
The most important tunnel in the British Isles is that beneath the River Severn, joining Bristol with South Wales. It is four miles long.—New York Times.

TOM MIX in 'Mile a Minute Romeo' and One of Our 'Gang Comedies'

Coming Sun., Mon., Tues. Special

ONE of the biggest stories ever written by an author is Rex Beach's "Big Brother." Read one paragraph of this story and you can't stop. You're simply held spell-bound by its breathless action, its great theme. For it has something you find in only one in a thousand stories—a soul. It is the story of a gangster's regeneration through the influence of a girl and the boy he's sworn to protect. It contains more action than Nick Carter, more heart-appeal than "Humoresque." It's ideal for the screen. A picture the whole family should see.

A GANG leader falls heir to a little boy and wages an amazing fight to "bring him up decent."

Signs of the Trade
"I am ready to deliver, sir," reported the prosperous bootlegger's assistant as he rolled around in the delivery limousine one morning. "I am to make the rounds of all the houses with blue cards in the windows, you say?"
"Yes," directed Mr. Boozeshine. "But—ah—wait. Not all of them. You need not leave anything at any of the houses with crepe on the door."—The Forecaster.

The Only One
The recently appointed county agricultural agent was visiting the farm of Uncle Rastus Jackson, in Georgia.
"Rastus," he observed, "this cow is in a shockingly unsanitary condition. I suggest that you thoroughly sterilize the udder before each milking."
"Yassah, yassah," replied the old darky, scratching his head in perplexity. "But I ain't got no odder—dis yeah am de only cow I see got sah."—Country Gentleman.

How Meat is Made.
The United States Department of Agriculture finds it takes about 6 pounds of grain and 6 pounds of hay to produce 1 pound of lamb (live weight); 10 pounds of hay and 10 pounds of corn to make 1 pound of beef, and 5.6 pounds of corn to produce 1 pound of pork.

"Good Morrow To You, My Valentine!"

MANY curious old charms are said to be potent on St. Valentine's eve—all, like most charms ever invented, connected with the procuring of husbands. Even before surplus woman dawned on the scene, this seems to have been a subject of much anxiety.

Five bay leaves, pinned respectively to the four corners and the center of the pillow, are said to bring certain dreams of the future partner, if the sleeper has gone to bed without eating or speaking.

Another infallible spell was to write the names of admirers on separate pieces of paper, enclose them in clay balls and throw them into water. The one which came to the surface first contained the name of the fated spouse.

It is a sign of great good luck if the swain you favor should be the first man seen on February 14. The modern girl who does not pin her faith entirely to signs and omens, can always practice the ruse of a shrewd maiden of long ago, who, knowing where her heart had gone, "lay a-bed and shut my eyes all the morning till 'he' came, for I would not have seen another man before him for all the world."

She was far-seeing and lucky. But if she had set eyes first on the wrong man, she would have wedded him, so a poet tells us:—
"Last Valentine, the day when birds of kind
Their paramours with mutual chirpings find.
Afield I went, amid the morning dew,
To milk my kine (for so should housewives do).
There first I spied, and the first swain we see,
In spite of fortune, shall our true love be."

Some of us wish that a quaint old custom practiced in the time of Peppys was still prevalent—the rule that a man must give a present to the first woman he saw on February 14. Peppys, gay old rascal that he was, much bewailed himself that his own tribute had to be offered to his wife—a proceeding he considered very dull, when there were plenty of pretty young girls at the light-hearted court of Charles II.

Old people still remember the time when valentines were as popular as Christmas cards, and the postman groaned under his load on the morning of the 14th. This is still the case in the United States, but the idea of courtship is no longer much connected with these bright cards.

Nowadays Shakespeare's greeting:—"Good morrow, 'tis St. Valentine's day, All the morning betime, And I a maid at your window, To be your valentine," simply reminds us of the passing of a delightful old custom.
Christianity brought the custom of placing each feast day under the patronage of a saint, and so St. Valentine, who never married himself, became the patron saint of lovers.—The Lady's Companion.

More to Follow

A young Scotswoman had just lost her husband. It was a sort affliction and the minister called to console with her. He found her in the kitchen eating a bowl of porridge.
"Ah, Janet," said the good man, "ye have met a sore affliction, indeed. It is too bad, too bad!"
"Aye, that it is, sir," was the reply, "and I greeted (wept) over it all the night. I just stopped long enough to eat my breakfast and as soon as I've finished this bowl of porridge I'm going to begin again."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Willing to Settle

A school teacher said to a small boy:
"Joe, this arithmetic problem of yours about the huckster and the apples is all wrong. You'll have to stay after school and work it out."
"How far wrong is it?" Joe asked.
"It's a dollar wrong," said the teacher.
Little Joe, a profiteer's son, drew forth a roll of bills and peeled a dollar off.
"I'll just pay up instead of working the thing out," he said. "You see, I'm awful busy this afternoon. Pop and me are goin' off for the week-end on our new flying boat."

Concealing Evidence

Judge—This man says that after he fired a shot, he saw you run from his chicken coop.
Rastus Johnson—He could easy be mistaken, Judge. Fast ez Ah was runnin', it might have been someone else what faintly resembles me.—The American Legion Weekly.

Versatile

"Good gracious!" said the visiting bachelor, "does your baby always cry that way?"
"Oh, dear, no!" responded his host. "He has quite an extensive repertoire. This is only one of his lighter performances. He reserves his heavy work for 2 a. m."—Boston Transcript.

The Worst

"Deliver me, darling," said one sophisticated woman to another, "from the man who doesn't understand women! They're simply impossible to slip anything over on."—Judge.

GOLD FISH MISTREATED

A TALE of horror comes from Chicago where it is reported that 212 gold fish have been mistreated in a most cruel manner. So indignant were the complaints made that the Illinois Humane society investigated, as mentioned in its report of the year's work. We do not know what gold fish eat, but we believe they were relieved of their cruel taskmasters and were given comfortable beds to sleep in and rations of the most approved quality.

It seems that the neglect centered about Daddy's methods. Mother told him to be sure and look out for the gold fish while she was on her vacation. He never replenished the water, he threw no crumbs to the feeble fish and in consequence the neighbors heard the doleful sounds emanating from the aquarium, and notified the humane society.

Other cases of animal and bird abuse were also investigated by this vigilant Illinois Humane society. This included abuses of 4,449 canaries. One cageful of songsters was harassed by jazz music on a phonograph. Dad promised to change the records and give the canaries a chance to sing in tune.

Other complaints included unkindness to 2,014 frogs, 15 ostriches, 250 alligators, 95 monkeys, 8 sea lions, 1 elephant, 13 "freak" animals and 62,216 chickens.

The average observer always thought the activities of the society included only checking abuse of horses and dogs. More attention was paid to frogs, for they numbered over 2,000, and the horses saved from mistreatment were only 692 and the dogs 828.

It's funny, too, the report at the conclusion, after taking up all kinds of reptiles and beasts, says that complaints of cruelty to children numbered 1,437.

MEMORIAL SERVICE ON THE RANGE

MEMORIAL services for the lost miners of the Cuyuna iron range will be held Sunday afternoon at the Crosby armory. Rev. J. E. Dowler will give the invocation, Mayor Wladimiroff will read the names of the dead. "Rock of Ages" will be sung. The scriptures will be read by Rev. F. S. Stevens of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Father Fredericks of the Catholic church will pray. Robert King will sing and there will be a band selection.

Hon. E. P. Scallon, representative of Crow Wing county, a mining man of long experience, one who knows the lot of the miner and can sympathize with him, will deliver the address. Mr. Scallon is an orator of high reputation and with such a theme it is believed he will deliver the most memorable address in his whole career.

The Philharmonic club will sing, the audience will stand in silent prayer at the conclusion and the benediction will be given by Rev. Erlander.

10,000 LAKES ASSOCIATION

It is with pleasure that the Dispatch notes that R. R. Wise again heads the 10,000 Lakes association, and that he is a member of the executive committee of the association. With him on this committee are associated E. T. Winship, Owatonna, vice president; A. D. Darge, St. Paul, vice president; R. D. Handy, Duluth; R. E. Dunn, Pelican Rapids; P. H. McGarry, Walker.

Plans formulated by the association contemplate a broad campaign of publicity setting forth the summer attractions of Minnesota by widespread publication of pictures in rotogravure sections throughout the country, an acceleration of magazine publicity and advertising, and a general increase in means of making known the recreational advantages of Minnesota.

"The Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota association has reached a stage wherein it is recognized as the voice of the people of the state in recreational matters, and there is little doubt but that it is facing an expansion which means much to the association and to every person in the state interested in the annual tourist influx," said President Wise.

MINNESOTA MAY HAVE A FAVORITE SON

CHARLES B. CHENEY's observations on things political, as published in the Minneapolis Journal, are always read with interest. Cheney is a particularly keen observer and incisive writer. He says the Minnesota democrats may go to New York with their own "favorite son." The possibility was admitted by party leaders, with Dr. Charles H. Mayo as the man in mind.

McAdoo is reported to be losing strength, former McAdoo followers saying they cannot afford to make a fight with a man who is on the defensive. The candidacy of Dr. Mayo would put Minnesota on the map. The delegates would go to New York backing Dr. Mayo with no apologies to make. Dr. Mayo has a world-wide reputation in the field of medicine and surgery.

LETHAL GAS

THE world may look with horror upon lethal or poison gas and dread its being used for executions, but on the whole it seems more humane than the rope. Cases have been known of traps failing to spring, of victims struggling after the same is sprung and on the whole the rope in some cases does not provide a painless death.

The gas kills in thirty seconds and so quickly that scientists maintain the man executed feels no pain. The gas was used in Carson City, Nevada, yesterday, on one of the condemned and after six minutes application was pronounced dead. Death by hanging, scientists assert, takes from 10 to 17 minutes.

MENTIONED AS DELEGATE

D. D. SCHRAEDER of Brainerd, prominent in the sixth district as chairman of the republican congressional committee, is receiving much mention throughout the district and is being proposed as a candidate for delegate to the national republican convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, in June.

Mr. Schrader is conversant with conditions in the sixth district, is known especially by all the newspaper boys and if given the honor will see that this section is well represented in the convention.

Scout Anniversary Week Editorial

Boy Scouts As Health Officers
 The knowledge the Boy Scouts have of the essential elements go to make up a healthy condition of a community. The splendid training they have as well as obedience to the Boy Scout Laws fit them specially to carry out the health and sanitary laws of our city.

Water

The City of Brainerd has provided good water for drinking purposes as well as for cleansing. Good water is a great factor for flushing the system through the kidneys. Also for at least one weekly warm bath with plenty of soap. The Boy Scouts will find here and there surface wells that are liable to contamination and become a source of danger. Same thing is true of the river water. Deep wells below a certain point, however, are safe.

Food

The Boy Scouts will find that the average store where food is kept is fairly well kept clean, but there are those grocery stores where the food we eat is kept uncovered subject to dust and filth. There is especially here an opportunity for the Boy Scouts to look into the matter of cold storage of meats, eggs, butter and milk to see that these articles of food are not kept in refrigerators where the ice is contaminated.

Public Cleanliness

The City has provided, in downtown districts, public drinking places. Street sweepers and also the actual washing of the streets are of great benefit to keeping the dust down in the summer time which is a great source for cause of sickness. In the winter time unnecessary dumping of filthy matter is another thing that should be condemned.

Outlying Districts

In the residential districts in some places unfortunate and dangerous conditions exist. In the summer-time open garbage cans, where flies have access to the garbage, is one of the greatest sources of danger to the health of the people. An equally dangerous source in the winter time is where human excreta is thrown out either in the back yard or other nearby places. In many cases the cause of this is due to frozen water pipes for flushing the closet or not proper built out-houses.

Schools

The Board of Education has done everything in its power to make the school life of the children a most healthy one. Children with communicable disease are sent home. Prevention against smallpox is brought about by vaccination. Diphtheria carriers are isolated by culturing their throats. Suspected cases of measles and scarlet fever are sent home. Everything is done for proper ventilation of the rooms and plenty of good water. The board have the co-operation of the teachers, the parents and especially the untiring efforts and incessant work of the City School Nurse until the schools have become a veritable health resort. This in turn is reflected in the homes. They have become a haven for those who wish to keep well because they know the value of pure water, good food, fresh air and plenty of sleep.

Thus, the Boy Scouts of Brainerd, by cooperating with the Health Department can be a great assistance in maintaining the health of the community.

DR. JOSEPH NICHOLSON,
 Health Officer.

Caspian Sea Tideless.

The Caspian sea is a tideless inland sea which is becoming saltier through evaporation. It is the largest inland body of water in the world. It is 700 miles long in north to south direction, and has a width varying from more than 100 to nearly 300 miles. Lake Superior is the largest fresh water body in the world. The extreme length of Lake Superior from east to west is 412 miles. Its extreme breadth is 167 miles.

GOLD FISH MISTREATED

A TALE of horror comes from Chicago where it is reported that 212 gold fish have been mistreated in a most cruel manner. So indignant were the complaints made that the Illinois Humane society investigated, as mentioned in its report of the year's work. We do not know what gold fish eat, but we believe they were relieved of their cruel taskmasters and were given comfortable beds to sleep in and rations of the most approved quality.

It seems that the neglect centered about Daddy's methods. Mother told him to be sure and look out for the gold fish while she was on her vacation. He never replenished the water, he threw no crumbs to the feeble fish and in consequence the neighbors heard the doleful sounds emanating from the aquarium, and notified the humane society.

Other cases of animal and bird abuse were also investigated by this vigilant Illinois Humane society. This included abuses of 4,449 canaries. One cageful of songsters was harassed by jazz music on a phonograph. Dad promised to change the records and give the canaries a chance to sing in tune.

Other complaints included unkindness to 2,014 frogs, 15 ostriches, 250 alligators, 95 monkeys, 8 sea lions, 1 elephant, 13 "freak" animals and 62,216 chickens.

The average observer always thought the activities of the society included only checking abuse of horses and dogs. More attention was paid to frogs, for they numbered over 2,000, and the horses saved from mistreatment were only 692 and the dogs 828.

It's funny, too, the report at the conclusion, after taking up all kinds of reptiles and beasts, says that complaints of cruelty to children numbered 1,437.

MEMORIAL SERVICE ON THE RANGE

MEMORIAL services for the lost miners of the Cuyuna iron range will be held Sunday afternoon at the Crosby armory. Rev. J. E. Dowler will give the invocation, Mayor Wladimiroff will read the names of the dead. "Rock of Ages" will be sung. The scriptures will be read by Rev. F. S. Stevens of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Father Fredericks of the Catholic church will pray. Robert King will sing and there will be a band selection.

Hon. E. P. Scallon, representative of Crow Wing county, a mining man of long experience, one who knows the lot of the miner and can sympathize with him, will deliver the address. Mr. Scallon is an orator of high reputation and with such a theme it is believed he will deliver the most memorable address in his whole career.

The Philharmonic club will sing, the audience will stand in silent prayer at the conclusion and the benediction will be given by Rev. Erlander.

10,000 LAKES ASSOCIATION

It is with pleasure that the Dispatch notes that R. R. Wise again heads the 10,000 Lakes association, and that he is a member of the executive committee of the association. With him on this committee are associated E. T. Winship, Owatonna, vice president; A. D. Darge, St. Paul, vice president; R. D. Handy, Duluth; R. E. Dunn, Pelican Rapids; P. H. McGarry, Walker.

Plans formulated by the association contemplate a broad campaign of publicity setting forth the summer attractions of Minnesota by widespread publication of pictures in rotogravure sections throughout the country, an acceleration of magazine publicity and advertising, and a general increase in means of making known the recreational advantages of Minnesota.

"The Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota association has reached a stage wherein it is recognized as the voice of the people of the state in recreational matters, and there is little doubt but that it is facing an expansion which means much to the association and to every person in the state interested in the annual tourist influx," said President Wise.

MINNESOTA MAY HAVE A FAVORITE SON

CHARLES B. CHENEY's observations on things political, as published in the Minneapolis Journal, are always read with interest. Cheney is a particularly keen observer and incisive writer. He says the Minnesota democrats may go to New York with their own "favorite son." The possibility was admitted by party leaders, with Dr. Charles H. Mayo as the man in mind.

McAdoo is reported to be losing strength, former McAdoo followers saying they cannot afford to make a fight with a man who is on the defensive. The candidacy of Dr. Mayo would put Minnesota on the map. The delegates would go to New York backing Dr. Mayo with no apologies to make. Dr. Mayo has a world-wide reputation in the field of medicine and surgery.

LETHAL GAS

The world may look with horror upon lethal or poison gas and dread its being used for executions, but on the whole it seems more humane than the rope. Cases have been known of traps failing to spring, of victims struggling after the same is sprung and on the whole the rope in some cases does not provide a painless death.

The gas kills in thirty seconds and so quickly that scientists maintain the man executed feels no pain. The gas was used in Carson City, Nevada, yesterday, on one of the condemned and after six minutes application was pronounced dead. Death by hanging, scientists assert, takes from 10 to 17 minutes.

MENTIONED AS DELEGATE

D. D. SCHRADER of Brainerd, prominent in the sixth district as chairman of the republican congressional committee, is receiving much mention throughout the district and is being proposed as a candidate for delegate to the national republican convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, in June.

Mr. Schrader is conversant with conditions in the sixth district, is known especially by all the newspaper boys and if given the honor will see that this section is well represented in the convention.

Scout Anniversary Week
Editorial

Boy Scouts As Health Officers
The knowledge the Boy Scouts have of the essential elements to go to make up a healthy condition of a community. The splendid training they have as well as obedience to the Boy Scout Laws fit them specially to carry out the health and sanitary laws of our city.

Water

The City of Brainerd has provided good water for drinking purposes as well as for cleansing. Good water is a great factor for flushing the system through the kidneys. Also for at least one weekly warm bath with plenty of soap. The Boy Scouts will find here and there surface wells that are liable to contamination and become a source of danger. Same thing is true of the river water. Deep wells below a certain point, however, are safe.

Food

The Boy Scouts will find that the average store where food is kept is fairly well kept clean, but there are those grocery stores where the food we eat is kept uncovered subject to dust and filth. There is especially here an opportunity for the Boy Scouts to look into the matter of cold storage of meats, eggs, butter and milk to see that these articles of food are not kept in refrigerators where the ice is contaminated.

Public Cleanliness

The City has provided, in downtown districts, public drinking places. Street sweepers and also the actual washing of the streets are of great benefit to keeping the dust down in the summer time which is a great source for cause of sickness. In the winter time unnecessary dumping of filthy matter is another thing that should be condemned.

Outlying Districts

In the residential districts in some places unfortunate and dangerous conditions exist. In the summer-time open garbage cans, where flies have access to the garbage, is one of the greatest sources of danger to the health of the people. An equally dangerous source in the wintertime is where human excreta is thrown out either in the back yard or other nearby places. In many cases the cause of this is due to frozen water pipes for flushing the closet or not proper built out-houses.

Schools

The Board of Education has done everything in its power to make the school life of the children a most healthy one. Children with communicable disease are sent home. Prevention against smallpox is brought about by vaccination. Diphtheria carriers are isolated by culturing their throats. Suspected cases of measles and scarlet fever are sent home. Everything is done for proper ventilation of the rooms and plenty of good water. The board have the co-operation of the teachers, the parents and especially the untiring efforts and incessant work of the City School Nurse until the schools have become a veritable health resort. This in turn is reflected in the homes. They have become a haven for those who wish to keep well because they know the value of pure water, good food, fresh air and plenty of sleep.

Thus, the Boy Scouts of Brainerd, by cooperating with the Health Department can be a great assistance in maintaining the health of the community.

DR. JOSEPH NICHOLSON,
Health Officer.

BOY SCOUT WEEK IN FLYING START

Father and Son Dinner at Civic & Commerce Rooms Attracts a Record Attendance

SPLENDID PROGRAM GIVEN

Grand Parade Saturday Morning With Boys Band Playing Its Liveliest Tunes

RANGE SCOUTS PROVE TRUE HEROES

And where were the Range Boy Scouts?
They were doing so many good turns helping miners widows and children in the mine disaster area that they had no time for celebration. Like heroes they are sticking on the job splitting wood, running errands, carrying groceries, doing so many good turns that it would take a book-keeper to keep track.
"They're showing the true Scout spirit," said Scout Executive E. W. Stimble, formerly of Minneapolis, when he addressed the big gathering.

The first guns in the Boy Scout anniversary week program were fired on Friday evening, when the accommodations at the Civic and Commerce Association rooms were taxed to their greatest capacity to care for the inner man and the inner boy at the father and son banquet, given by the Crow Wing County Council of the Boy Scouts.

The fathers of Brainerd turned out in fine style, and the men who had no boys of their own, borrowed one for the occasion. It is stated that never in the history of the Civic and Commerce Association have so many been fed in the rooms of that organization, considering the fact that each boy brought with him an appetite equal to that of three men. There was not room at the tables to seat all of the diners at one time, and it was necessary to set a second table.

Much credit is due to the Camp Fire Girls, who under the direction of Miss Eula Michael, served the banquet and did it with the efficiency of experts.
When the diners had gathered around the tables, the scout grace was repeated, "Great Scoutmaster of all true Scouts, for Thy many blessings we thank Thee. Help us to keep our oath and our laws, and remember our daily good turn."

The excellent repast was prepared by Ed Hewitt, of the Hewitt Caf  , and consisted of the following:

Menu

Celery	Olives
Fresh Fried Pike
Mashed potatoes	Creamed Peas
Combination Salad
Rolls	Butter
Coffee	Cocoa
Ice Cream—Wafers

At the close of the dinner, the following program was rendered:

1. The American Legion Quartet.
2. Vocal solo, Roy T. Brown.
3. Father and son duet, Rowland Jenkins, Junior and Senior.
4. Trio, "Syncopeating Scouts," Elmer and Carl Peterson, Hans Pflock.
5. Lions Quartet.
6. Vocal solo, A. C. Mraz.

The American Legion quartet, consisted of Melville Bredenberg, A. C. Mraz, Rowland Jenkins and Roy T. Brown. They responded with "Carolina in the Morning" as an encore.

Roy T. Brown, of the MacPhail School of Music, Minneapolis, rendered a tenor solo, "Dawn" and responded with an encore.

The father and son duet was a unique innovation, Mr. Jenkins singing to the accompaniment of his son with a saxophone. His encore consisted of "That Old Gang of Mine," the second verse of which the singer imposed to the theme of "That Old Scout Troop of Mine."

The syncopeating scouts, were instrumentalists, with piano, violin and clarinet. They upheld the adage that a scout is musical, and brought forth a hearty encore.

The Lions quartet, R. L. Geist, D. H. Fullerton, R. D. Stitzel and L. F. Hough, sang "Pale in the Amber West," and the old favorite, "Kentucky Babe."

A. C. Mraz, in his usual excellent form, delighted his hearers with two solos. Mrs. Walter Wieland acted as pianist for all of the vocal numbers with the exception of the Lions quartet. Mrs. Stitzel accompanying these singers.

Immediately following this program all Boy Scouts arose and re-committed themselves to the scout oath and as they finished Jas. S. Gorman of the 10,000 Lakes Studio took a flashlight picture of the entire assemblage.

J. P. Anderson offered a toast to the boy, which was responded to by Scout Carl Peterson with a toast "To the Dad" in rhyme. Mr. Anderson told of the hardships of boys of his generation in getting an education and preparing for life's work, and the number who under such difficulties had become very successful. No boy of today need encounter such hardships, said Mr. Anderson because of the opportunities offered through scouting. He cited an instance where a boyhood friend of his, 12 years of age, forced to go to work attended night schools and received numerous promotions until he reached the top in his chosen career.

The men of the county were complimented by Mr. Anderson for the time and money they have given to further the cause of scouting, and admonished the boys to obey their scoutmasters, live up to their pledges and help make this the best county in Minnesota. Further timely advice to the boys was included in the admonition to remember their mothers, when they get away from home, and like Abraham Lincoln, give the credit of their success to their mother's influences and teachings.

Rev. N. P. Olmsted, the new pastor of the Congregational church, was next introduced, and gave an excellent address on "Father and Son." Rev. Olmsted stated that he had long been closely affiliated with the Boy Scout movement, having the distinction of being scoutmaster of a fine troop in 1911, when scouting was only one year old. He met with his troop once each week, and stated with no little satisfaction that every boy in that troop has made good and is a decided credit to himself and his community.

Rev. Olmsted's remarks were in the main, addressed to the fathers, advising them to be as good a father as your son believes you to be. He told of the kindly sympathetic leadership that the son needs, and closed with the thought to fathers to renew their youth by cultivating their sons.

T. G. Lewis, grand counselor of the United Commercial Travelers for the states of Minnesota and North Dakota, brought a brief message to the gathering in an excellent short talk. Mrs. D. E. Whitney will read "Daddy's gone a-hunting," by Voe Atkins. All members of the league are requested to be present.

He stated that members of the U. C. T., as individuals, were supporting the scout movement, and that the organization itself has a fund set aside for this work.

Incidentally, Mr. Lewis resides in Moorhead, and is a member of the Congregational church there, to which Rev. Frederick Errington was called.

Scout Executive E. W. Stimble spoke on "Anniversary Week" program that has been outlined, and asked for the hearty cooperation of the citizens of Brainerd in making it successful. He then cut the big birthday cake, the donation of The Elektrik Maid Bakery, dividing it among the scouts.

After much conjecture as to his identity, "Jimmy Crow Wing" was finally introduced in the person of Earl Nelson, who was given the scout cheer and recognized as the most smiling scout of the city.

The father and son banquet is considered a most successful affair, the only regret that is felt is that there were not more of the fathers present with their sons. Too many of the boys had to be placed in the care of foster fathers, who volunteered their services for the event. It is hoped to interest the parents to a greater extent in future scout activities.

This morning at ten o'clock, all boy scouts of the city met at the Woodhead Motor Co., and led by the Brainerd Boys Band, paraded the streets of the downtown section, stopping at the Harrison hotel to receive two bus-loads of scouts, 20 boys from Deerwood and 18 from Crosby, who came to participate in the program of the day. The Iron-ron scouts were unable to attend, being busily engaged in relief work to families affected by the Milford mine disaster.

FIRST PUMPING AT MINE DISASTER

In spite of published reports in the Twin City, Duluth and Superior papers that pumping was in progress the past few days at the Milford mine, scene of the Cuyuna range disaster, such work did not actually start until three o'clock this afternoon, when according to County Mine Inspector August Swanson, the first real pumping got under way, and was continuing successfully, the pump being primed with clear water from Foley pond.

3,500 gallons a minute are being discharged. When the water has been ejected, the sand suckers will start to pull out the mud.

A short attempt was made at pumping yesterday, but came to an abrupt close when the suction pipe broke.

Mr. Swanson reported as incorrect a statement attributed to him that few of the bodies would be found. He said he thought a number would be found in or near the shaft.

Much credit is due to the Campfire Girls, who under the direction of Miss Eula Michael, served the banquet and did it with the efficiency of experts.

When the diners had gathered around the tables, the scout grace was repeated, "Great Scoutmaster of all true Scouts, for Thy many blessings we thank Thee. Help us to keep our oath and our laws, and remember our daily good turn."

The excellent repast was prepared by Ed Hewitt, of the Hewitt Cafe, and consisted of the following:

Menu

Celery	Olives
Fresh Fried Pike
Mashed potatoes	Creamed Peas
Combination Salad
Rolls	Butter
Coffee	Cocoa
Ice Cream—Wafers

At the close of the dinner, the following program was rendered:

1. The American Legion Quartet.
2. Vocal solo, Roy T. Brown.
3. Father and son duet, Rowland Jenkins, Junior and Senior.
4. Trio, "Syncopating Scouts," Elmer and Carl Peterson, Han Phock.
5. Lions Quartet.
6. Vocal solo, A. C. Mraz.

The American Legion quartet, consisted of Melville Bredenberg, A. C. Mraz, Rowland Jenkins and Roy T. Brown. They responded with "Carolina in the Morning" as an encore.

Roy T. Brown, of the MacPhail School of Music, Minneapolis, rendered a tenor solo, "Dawn" and responded with an encore.

The father and son duet was a unique innovation, Mr. Jenkins singing to the accompaniment of his son with a saxophone. His encore consisted of "That Old Gang of Mine," the second verse of which the singer imposed to the theme of "That Old Scout Troop of Mine."

The syncopating scouts, were instrumentalists, with piano, violin and clarinet. They upheld the adage that a scout is musical, and brought forth a hearty encore.

The Lions quartet, R. L. Geist, D. H. Fullerton, R. D. Stitzel and L. F. Hough, sang "Pale in the Amber West," and the old favorite, "Kentucky Babe."

A. C. Mraz, in his usual excellent form, delighted his hearers with two solos. Mrs. Walter Wieland acted as pianist for all of the vocal numbers with the exception of the Lions quartet, Mrs. Stitzel accompanying these singers.

Immediately following this program all Boy Scouts arose and re-committed themselves to the scout oath and as they finished Jas. S. Gorman of the 10,000 Lakes Studio took a flashlight picture of the entire assemblage.

J. P. Anderson offered a toast to the boy, which was responded to by Scout Carl Peterson with a toast "To the Dad" in rhyme. Mr. Anderson told of the hardships of boys of his generation in getting an education and preparing for life's work, and the number who under such difficulties had become very successful. No boy of today need encounter such hardships, said Mr. Anderson, because of the opportunities offered through scouting. He cited an instance where a boyhood friend of his 12 years of age, forced to go to work attended night schools and received numerous promotions until he reached the top in his chosen career.

The men of the county were complimented by Mr. Anderson for the time and money they have given to further the cause of scouting, and admonished the boys to obey their scoutmasters, live up to their pledges and help make this the best county in Minnesota. Further timely advice to the boys was included in the admonition to remember their mothers, when they get away from home, and like Abraham Lincoln, give the credit of their success to their mother's influences and teachings.

Rev. N. P. Olmsted, the new pastor of the Congregational church, was next introduced, and gave an excellent address on "Father and Son." Rev. Olmsted stated that he had long been closely affiliated with the Boy Scout movement, having the distinction of being scoutmaster of a fine troop in 1911, when scouting was only one year old. He met with his troop once each week, and stated with no little satisfaction that every boy in that troop has made good and is a decided credit to himself and his community.

Rev. Olmsted's remarks were in the main, addressed to the fathers, advising them to be as good a father as your son believes you to be. He told of the kindly sympathetic leadership that the son needs, and closed with the thought to fathers to renew their youth by cultivating their sons.

T. G. Lewis, grand counselor of the United Commercial Travelers for the states of Minnesota and North Dakota, brought a brief message to the gathering in an excellent short talk. Mr. Lewis stated that his son is assistant scoutmaster in New Haven, Conn. The grand counselor believes in making a pal of one's son, going with him on fishing and hunting expeditions and associating with the boy at every opportunity.

He stated that members of the U. C. T., as individuals, were supporting the scout movement, and that the organization itself has a fund set aside for this work.

Incidentally, Mr. Lewis resides in Moorhead, and is a member of the Congregational church there, to which Rev. Frederick Errington was called.

Scout Executive E. W. Stumble spoke on "Anniversary Week" program that has been outlined, and asked for the hearty cooperation of the citizens of Brainerd in making it successful. He then cut the big birthday cake, the donation of The Elektrik Maid Bakery, dividing it among the scouts.

After much conjecture as to his identity, "Jimmy Crow Wing" was finally introduced in the person of Earl Nelson, who was given the scout cheer and recognized as the most smiling scout of the city.

The father and son banquet is considered a most successful affair, the only regret that is felt is that there were not more of the fathers present with their sons. Too many of the boys had to be placed in the care of foster fathers, who volunteered their services for the event. It is hoped to interest the parents to a greater extent in future scout activities.

This morning at ten o'clock, all boy scouts of the city met at the Woodhead Motor Co., and led by the Brainerd Boys Band, paraded the streets of the downtown section, stopping at the Harrison hotel to receive two bus-loads of scouts, 20 boys from Deerwood and 18 from Crosby, who came to participate in the program of the day. The Iron-ton scouts were unable to attend, being busily engaged in relief work to families affected by the Milford mine disaster.

FIRST PUMPING AT MINE DISASTER

In spite of published reports in the Twin City, Duluth and Superior papers that pumping was in progress the past few days at the Milford mine, scene of the Cuyuna range disaster, such work did not actually start until three o'clock this afternoon, when according to County Mine Inspector August Swanson, the first real pumping got under way, and was continuing successfully, the pump being primed with clear water from Foley pond.

3,500 gallons a minute are being discharged. When the water has been ejected, the sandsuckers will start to pull out the mud.

A short attempt was made at pumping yesterday, but came to an abrupt close when the suction pipe broke.

Mr. Swanson reported as incorrect a statement attributed to him that few of the bodies would be found. He said he thought a number would be found in or near the shaft.

SEEK PLAYERS TO REBUILD N. L. TEAMS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 9.—Several National League clubs are to be shaken up by trades that may not be completed before the next season actually starts, in the opinion of Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, who was here recently on a business trip.

Rickey said in his experience he had never heard so much trade talk among the club owners that was meant seriously. The difficulty, he pointed out, in swinging the deals was the usual one—they all want the best of the deal.

The St. Louis manager said he had been offered Charley Hollocher and Rabbit Maranville, but he didn't want either one of them as the successor to Doc Lavan, who is said to be scheduled out of St. Louis.

Rickey is after one of the Boston catchers and it is probable that the deal will be completed before the teams go south.

The dope was also spilled by Rickey that Pittsburgh is hot after Jimmy Ring, who won eighteen games with the lowly Phils last season. He admitted, however, that most any club in the league would take him off Baker's hands if the deal could be swung without giving too much for him.

Perhaps the Cardinal manager meant to include himself when he said: "They all want too much for their players." He certainly belongs to that classification himself, as he was not modest in placing a valuation of $500,000 on Rogers Hornsby.

John McGraw hasn't recovered yet from the terrible shock he got when Rickey, in reply to a question of what he would take for the champion batsman of the league, started off: "Frisch, Jackson." McGraw stopped him right there, and said he would not give Frisch for Hornsby in an even trade.

McGraw meant it, and he is probably right. Frisch is practically just getting started. He has by no means reached the top of his game and he is getting better each season. With the exception of his hitting, Frisch is a more valuable player now than Hornsby, and his work with the bat is nothing to be sneezed at.

Hornsby probably has reached the top of his game. He may continue to lead the league in batting for several more seasons, but he will get no faster as he grows older, and he already has a weak knee.

Frisch has been a sensation ever since he jumped into the emergency at second base in 1919, and last year was his best season. His work in the world's series was superb, and one of his plays was stamped by Miller Huggins, manager of the opposing Yankees, as the finest and smartest bit of execution he had ever seen on the field.

Frisch studies the game and, for that matter, Hornsby may also take his business very seriously, but Frisch shows more in his game to indicate that he is giving every play close thought.

Making that spectacular play in the world's series he threw himself around under a short fly and so to catch the ball in a position to get it away quickly. He took the chance, made good on it and doubled Babe Ruth at the plate.

BRAINERD SCORED 4TH CONSECUTIVE WIN LAST NIGHT

(By L. P.)

Braingerd scored its fourth consecutive victory Friday night, when she defeated Crosby-Ironton, 21 to 5 at Crosby.

Braingerd drew first blood when Dieckhaus caged a field goal. Then Johnstone scored on the free throw route and followed up by a field goal. The quarter ended with Crosby in the lead, 3 to 2.

In the second quarter W. Engbretson came out with his old time shooting and caged four field goals, while Darling for Crosby scored one field goal. The half ended with Braingerd well in the lead, 10 to 5.

The third quarter was a defensive game on both sides, and the only scoring being a free throw by W. Engbretson.

The fourth quarter was the fastest part of the game. W. Engbretson started the scoring with a field goal followed by three more from Zakariasen and one from Lowe, ending the game with Braingerd on the long end of the score, 21 to 5.

Zakariasen and Engbretson starred on the offensive and Dieckhaus and Lowe on the defense. Braingerd now stands with a percentage of .571.

Staples plays here Tuesday night in a double header.

Summary of the game:

The Girls' Game

The girls' game was fast and thrilling throughout the entire game.

During the first half Crosby had the Braingerd girls entirely outclassed. This was due largely to the fact that this was the first game the local girls played against an opposing school.

In the second half the Braingerd girls were on an equal footing with the Crosby girls.

The score at the half was 11 to 3 in Crosby's favor and at the end of the game 19 to 9 with Crosby on the long end.

Edna Turner was the outstanding star for the locals, scoring all nine points. For Crosby Nellie Curtis and Dorothy McDonald split the scoring honors.

The Braingerd girls have a great future before them, considering the odds that were against them, such as the Crosby floor being twice the size of the local floor. The Crosby girls are all seniors having played together since the grades. The Braingerd girls are all freshmen with the exception of the two subs. The Crosby girls are returning to Braingerd Feb. 29. A much more even game is assured.

WASH YOUR KIDNEYS BY DRINKING WATER

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. —Advt.

Another Man Beaten Up

The thing called nerve is interesting. No golfer would say that Gene Sarazen is lacking in nerve. He has gone through too many tough spots in the golfing highway for anyone to insinuate that he is lacking in the athletic punch. And yet, invited to one of those Miami boxing affairs, according to an Indianapolis man, who was present at the invitation, Sarazen said:

"Count me out. I don't like fighting. It's too rough. I can't see an other man beaten up."

Buck Herzog Signed Up

as Manager for Newark

Charley Herzog, former major league star second baseman, has returned to baseball as a manager. He put his name to a contract to manage the Newark club of the International league the coming year. Michael McTigue, one of the owners of the club, did not say what the salary arrangements were but it is believed that Herzog got fat figures. The deal had been pending since the syndicate of home business men bought the franchise a few weeks ago.

Paramount Vice-President Endorses

New Rex Beach Novel
Rex Beach's latest novel, "Big Brother," which ran as a serial in "Hearst's International Magazine," has been produced for Paramount by Allan Dwan and will be shown at the Lyceum Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

In commenting upon this picture, Jesse L. Lasky said in part: "I consider 'Big Brother' one of the greatest stories of the season. It was told to me by the author before it began appearing in Hearst's magazine, and we lost no time in buying it. It is a story of New York gangdom and the work of the Big Brother movement in protecting and rescuing boys from evil surroundings in our big cities.

"Behind the writing of 'Big Brother' is an appealing human interest story. Mr. Beach was in Washington some time ago during a convention of the Big Brother organization. He became acquainted with several leaders of the movement and from what they told him of the work of their organization he was inspired to write his novel."

Mystery and Thrills Riot in "Red Lights"

That mystery and suspense may be just as effective in the silent drama as on the speaking stage is evidenced by the film version of Edward E. Rose's mystery play, "The Red Car," which Clarence Badger directed for Goldwyn under the title of "Red Lights." The play had a successful stage career with Richard Bennett in the leading role in the West and Taylor Holmes in the East. Many critics pronounced it the best mystery play since "The Bat." "Red Lights," the screen version, keeps the action more suspenseful than did the play because the director took full advantage of the opportunity of depicting many scenes and episodes which could not be shown in the stage version. The picture will be shown at the New Park tonight and Sunday, and is one that every picture-goer, who is fond of melodrama, of mystery and of sensational spectacle, should not miss.

Stinginess Rebuked

The headle was in the habit of showing visitors over the remains of the abbey in the parish. On one occasion he had done so for a lady who, on leaving him in the churchyard, offered him only barren thanks. As she went through the gate the wily man remarked: "Well, ma'am, if you find you've lost your purse when you get home, remember you didn't have it out here."

"Mile-A-Minute Romeo," now showing at the Lyceum Theatre finds Mix just as good as ever. We know, for a cowboy told us, and a cowboy ought to know if anybody does. He was a very real cowboy in chaps and sombrero and all, and he had come in from the ranch country for a city visit, to take a few turns at the roulette wheel, dance a few in the roped off enclosure where they hold the Saturday night street dance and—if they were showing a real show—drop into the movie "palace" for a while. At least that was his idea of a good time in town.

WORLD'S RECORDS IN SWIMMING BROKEN

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Two world's records were smashed, one was created and one American record was lowered at the Central A. A. U. swimming championship meet held under the auspices of the Illinois A. C.

Johnny Weismuller, tank ace, clipped 3 4-5 seconds off his world's record of 4:34 3-5 for the men's open free style 100 yard swim. John Farley, former captain of the University of Minnesota tank team, made the men's open 200 metre breast stroke in 2:55 3-5, breaking his world's record by 4 1-5 seconds.

Stubby Kruger's mark of 3:49 2-5 in the 300 yard medley was declared a world's record, no official time having previously been taken for the event. The medley includes 100 yards each of breast stroke, back stroke and free style in continuous swimming.

Miss Ethel Lackie lowered the American record for the women's 100 yard free style by 2-5 seconds, making it in 1:04 3-5.

CHAS. HOLLOCHER

WANTS BACK PAY

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—Charles Hollocher today stated he would quit organized baseball unless the Chicago Cubs paid him back salary in a lump sum. The shortstop voluntarily left the Cubs last August because of illness, and the back salary he refers to is said to be between $4,000 and $4,500. The Cubs, he said, offered to pay this amount to him in installments.

President Veeck of the local National league club served notice on the player that no trade or deal involving him would be considered.

WOOCK NAMED PILOT OF CARLETON NINE

Northfield, Feb. 9.—The first gun in the 1924 state college baseball race was fired today when the Carleton diamond letter men chose Herman "Mutt" Woock as captain for the spring season.

Letter men voting for captain were: Cassell, Nordley, Dana, Hertz, G. O'Brien and Remington. Woock has pitched for Carleton three years, and in that time has established an enviable record. Three no hit, no run games are to his credit, and the fact that Carleton has finished among the leaders for the past three years is largely due to his sterling pitching.

AMERICAN SQUASH TEAM IS WINNER

Haverford, Pa., Feb. 9.—The American squash team won the first 12 games from the Canadians in the opening series of matches in the international squash racquets tournament for the Lapham cup between the United States, England and Canada.

The opening match began shortly before noon and it will be nearly 4 o'clock before the American and Canadian teams finish their 14 games set.

The English team will play the Canadian team this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

YUSSIF HUSSANE IS BEATEN BY GREBMIRE

Minneapolis, Feb. 9.—Fred Grebmire, Iowa wrestler, defeated Yussif Hussane of Dallas, Texas, at the Gayety Thursday night.

Grebwire won the first fall with a short arm scissors in 51 minutes. They came back to the mat for the second fall at 11:30 and after 30 minutes of torrid work had to stop because of the midnight time limit.

Famous English Team to Play in United States

Soccer enthusiasts will see the famous Corinthian amateurs of London in motion next fall as the Englishmen are to appear in Philadelphia and Canadian cities. The Glasgow Celtics may also come over, now that the kicking style of football is gaining in popularity, especially in the East and New England.

SEEK PLAYERS TO REBUILD N. L. TEAMS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 9.—Several National League clubs are to be shaken up by trades that may not be completed before the next season actually starts, in the opinion of Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cards, who was here recently on a business trip.

Rickey said in his experience he had never heard so much trade talk among the club owners that was meant seriously. The difficulty, he pointed out, in swinging the deals was the usual one—they all want the best of the deal.

The St. Louis manager said he had been offered Charley Hollocher and Rabbit Maranville, but he didn't want either one of them as the successor to Doc Lavan, who is said to be scheduled out of St. Louis.

Rickey is after one of the Boston catchers, and it is probable that the deal will be completed before the teams go south.

The dope was also spilled by Rickey that Pittsburgh is hot after Jimmy Ring, who won eighteen games with the lowly Phils last season. He admitted, however, that most any club in the league would take him off Baker's hands if the deal could be swung without giving too much for him.

Perhaps the Cardinal manager meant to include himself when he said: "They all want too much for their players." He certainly belongs to that classification himself, as he was not modest in placing a valuation of $500,000 on Rogers Hornsby.

John McGraw hasn't recovered yet from the terrible shock he got when Rickey, in reply to a question of what he would take for the champion batsman of the league, started off: "Frisch, Jackson—." McGraw stopped him right there, and said he would not give Frisch for Hornsby in an even trade.

McGraw meant it, and he is probably right. Frisch is practically just getting started. He has by no means reached the top of his game and he is getting better each season. With the exception of his hitting, Frisch is a more valuable player now than Hornsby, and his work with the bat is nothing to be sneezed at.

Hornsby probably has reached the top of his game. He may continue to lead the league in batting for several more seasons, but he will get no faster as he grows older, and he already has a weak knee.

Frisch has been a sensation ever since he jumped into the emergency at second base in 1919, and last year was his best season. His work in the world's series was superb, and one of his plays was stamped by Miller Huggins, manager of the opposing Yankees, as the finest and smartest bit of execution he had ever seen on the field.

Frisch studies the game and, for that matter, Hornsby may also take his business very seriously, but Frisch shows more in his game to indicate that he is giving every play close thought.

Making that spectacular play in the world's series he threw himself around under a short fly and so to catch the ball in a position to get it away quickly. He took the chance, made good on it and doubled Babe Ruth at the plate.

BRAINERD SCORED 4TH CONSECUTIVE WIN LAST NIGHT

(By L. P.)

Braingerd scored its fourth consecutive victory Friday night, when she defeated Crosby-Ironton, 21 to 5 at Crosby.

Braingerd drew first blood when Dieckhaus caged a field goal. Then Johnstone scored on the free throw route and followed up by a field goal. The quarter ended with Crosby in the lead, 3 to 2.

In the second quarter W. Engbretson came out with his old time shooting and caged four field goals, while Darling for Crosby scored one field goal. The half ended with Braingerd well in the lead, 19 to 5.

The third quarter was a defensive game on both sides, and the only scoring being a free throw by W. Engbretson.

The fourth quarter was the fastest part of the game. W. Engbretson started the scoring with a field goal followed by three more from Zakariassen and one from Lowe, ending the game with Braingerd on the long end of the score, 21 to 5.

Zakariassen and Engbretson starred on the offensive and Dieckhaus and Lowe on the defense. Braingerd now stands with a percentage of .571.

Staples plays here Tuesday night in a double header.

Summary of the game:

The Girls' Game

The girls' game was fast and thrilling throughout the entire game.

During the first half Crosby had the Braingerd girls entirely outclassed. This was due largely to the fact that this was the first game the local girls played against an opposing school.

In the second half the Braingerd girls were on an equal footing with the Crosby girls.

The score at the half was 11 to 3 in Crosby's favor, and at the end of the game 19 to 5 with Crosby on the long end.

Edna Turner was the outstanding star for the locals, scoring all nine points. For Crosby Nellie Curtis and Dorothy McDonald split the scoring honors.

The Braingerd girls have a great future before them, considering the odds that were against them, such as the Crosby floor being twice the size of the local floor. The Crosby girls are all seniors having played together since the grades. The Braingerd girls are all freshmen with the exception of the two subs. The Crosby girls are returning to Braingerd Feb. 29. A much more even game is assured.

WASH YOUR KIDNEYS BY DRINKING WATER

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you many suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. —Advt.

Couldn't Stand to See

Another Man Beaten Up

The thing called nerve is interesting. No golfer would say that Gene Sarazen is lacking in nerve. He has gone through too many tough spots in the golfing highway for anyone to insinuate that he is lacking in the athletic punch. And yet, invited to one of those Miami boxing affairs, according to an Indianapolis man, who was present at the invitation, Sarazen said: "Count me out. I don't like fighting. It's too rough. I can't see an other man beaten up."

Buck Herzog Signed Up as Manager for Newark

Charley Herzog, former major league star second baseman, has returned to baseball as a manager. He put his name to a contract to manage the Newark club of the International league the coming year. Michael McTigue, one of the owners of the club, did not say what the salary arrangements were but it is believed that Herzog got fat figures. The deal had been pending since the syndicate of home business men bought the franchise a few weeks ago.

Stinginess Rebuked

The handle was in the habit of showing visitors over the remains of the abbey in the parish. On one occasion he had done so for a lady who, on leaving him in the churchyard, offered him only barren thanks. As she went through the gate the wily man remarked: "Well, ma'am, if you find you've lost your purse when you get home, remember you didn't have it out here."

AMUSEMENTS

Cowpunchers Ride Across Range to See Tom Mix

"Mile-A-Minute Romeo," now showing at the Lyceum Theatre finds Mix just as good as ever. We know, for a cowboy told us, and a cowboy ought to know if anybody does. He was a very real cowboy in chaps and sombrero and all, and he had come in from the ranch country for a city visit, to take a few turns at the roulette wheel, dance a few in the roped off enclosure where they hold the Saturday night street dance and—if they were showing a real show—drop into the movie "palace" for a while. At least that was his idea of a good time in town.
